THE STORY OF THE YEAR

In the heart of this great city of Boston, near the intersection of Boylston and Tremont Streets, which is one of our busiest street corners, is an institution which has the one purpose of building better men. It is the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, at 48 Boylston Street. It has just begun the seventieth year of its work. Within its walls a great deal is constantly going on. It is an intensely interesting thing to gather up the facts for the year which closed the first of April, 1920, and to put them into a story of the year.

USING IMAGINATION

How shall we read such a story when the facts are assembled? The statement of the treasurer invites our capacity for arithmetic to follow the additions and subtractions. So do these statistics of membership, classes, books and equipment. But it is only when we summon imagination and intensify our human interest that we get at the meaning of the facts for the year. This institution is in the business of building better men. Every dollar sign is to be interpreted as representing human faces. Every fact about books stands for the working of a human brain. The statistics from the gymnasium mean stronger men, morally as well as physically. Every statement about an organized group means a better spirit. Classes and clubs are building better citizens.

The greatest facts are elusive. They decline to be put into type. Figures do not represent them; words do not wholly express them. These greatest facts are in the personalities of our members and in the united spirit of the organization.

If this were a saw-mill we could count the logs that come in, and could reckon the lumber that goes out. If this were a bank we could prepare a balance sheet showing liabilities and resources. If this were a store we could count customers, measure goods and figure exact costs and profits.

It is none of these. It deals with the personalities of men. It is concerned with their development and growth. Some men come in here lonely and go out with light hearts because they have found friends. Some come in with questions and go out with the answers. Some come in unfit for the strain of their duties and go out physically stronger and mentally more alert. Some come in with halting step and bowed head and go out with head erect and elastic step.

Who can measure these things? How can they be reduced to figures? In what type can they be printed? Shall they be estimated by the scales or by the yard-stick? No annual report can convey them to the minds of its readers.

Yet these are the things which make the success of this institution, which has more than five thousand men in its membership. We are in the business of making men. We traffic in eternal realities. We use visible things that we may achieve invisible ends. The past year has been a year of large success in the real work of this UNION.

IN TIME OF PEACE

The past year has been a time of adjustment after war. During the war, our building, our men, our working forces, our financial resources, were placed at the service of the nation. The building had a military aspect. Now it has nearly resumed its normal appearance in time of peace. But all that we have and are is still devoted to the service of the nation.

The times of peace have a right to ask a consecration no less complete than the devotion of a soldier in time of war.

In our activities in civic affairs we are using the lessons learned in time of war. Our Civic Department helped enlistment, and the sale of Liberty Bonds, and rendered other valuable service during the war. The past year, it has rendered valuable service in Americanization. By means of moving pictures, song-slides and stereopticon pictures it has taught the new meaning of patriotism.

Let imagination picture audiences totaling in one year a half-million people, and one gains some hint of the far-reaching effects of this work.

Within the building we maintain the "United Service Club" not only for ex-service men but for all young men who come to us, "soldiers of the common good." We have provided an average of over forty lodgings every night, or at the rate of fifteen thousand a year. Nearly as many additional men come by day to make use of the facilities.

The Cafeteria has served in six months nearly sixty thousand meals, for which only enough is charged to cover the bare cost.

The Hostess Room has provided the cheer of a home atmosphere for young men who are lonely in this great city.

GROWTH IN MEMBERSHIP

During the war THE UNION sent a large part of its membership into military service, and some of them made the supreme sacrifice. The past year has seen a large gain in our membership as shown by the following tabulation:

New Annual Members added	1,716
Annual Members renewed	1,735
Annual Members, March 31, 1920		3,451
Life Members, March 31, 1919	1,910
Deceased	29
	1,881
Added	13
Life Members, March 31, 1920		1,894
Total Members, March 31, 1920		5,345
Total Members, March 31, 1919		4,769
Net Gain for the Year		576

STRONGER MEN

It is an important part of our work to provide men with physical training to keep them "fit" for their duties in industry and their work as good citizens. The past year in the Gymnasium has been an exceptionally busy one and the interest has been constant and enthusiastic. As the year closed, the membership in the Gymnasium was 1,838, a gain over a year ago of 484. This is a large gain, and is a reason for deep satisfaction. The enthusiasm and interest of the members has been promoted by the use of music with the class drills. This with the inspiration of trained leadership has made the work very enjoyable. Forty classes have been held each week during the season, at hours to suit the convenience of members.

Many young men go into industrial positions with inadequate preparation. Evening classes give them the opportunity of making up for this lack. We carry on an extensive educational work for just this purpose. As a consequence they are made ready for promotion in their chosen line of business or fitted for a better position in some other line. Our classes offer a great variety of courses of instruction.

The young man who wants to make the most of himself is invited to make use of the opportunities offered here. Besides the actual class instruction, he will find here the influences which will enable him to make of himself a stronger man. The comradeship which he can find here will fit him to be a better citizen.

The Library will help him toward a broader culture. On the open book-shelves readily accessible to the reader are nearly fifteen thousand volumes, and on the tables may be found a splendid range of periodicals, daily, weekly and monthly.

A GREAT SOCIAL CENTER

THE UNION uses to a large extent its working forces and equipment in social service. In the summer a large work is done for "Country Week," providing children and older people with a vacation in the country, and providing carriage drives, car rides and boat trips for others. At Christmas a joyous festival is provided for poor children. In the past year, in these ways, strength and cheer were brought to more than twelve thousand people.

Through our Employment Department, help is constantly being given to young men to find positions in the industrial world.

THE POWER OF TRANSFORMATION

For the great work which we are doing, our building is well situated, being easily accessible to many thousands of men; but we have an increasing need of more space. Already we are using more than fifty thousand square feet of floor space in this building which THE UNION owns.

The Treasurer's statement for the year shows more than one hundred twenty-five thousand dollars expended in this work. It is not a large sum, in comparison with the magnitude of the work done. There is no visible limit to the possible growth of this work, if we could add equipment and money as needed.

The old fable tells of King Midas at whose touch everything was turned to gold. In such work as this, gold is transformed into human life. For the support of this work, money is contributed; and every dollar is touched by the transforming power of idealism and becomes an influence which helps to shape the characters of growing men.

On every hand we find evidence of interest in human relationship; "human engineering" is receiving the attention of business men and students of large affairs. Quite properly, and confident of returning good dividends, we invite those who know the ways of commercial success, to make an investment here in this work of turning money into human character.

Finance

Report of Committee on Finance

George S. Baldwin, Chairman * John R. Ainsley; Ernest G. Adams

The Committee on Finance is pleased to report a slight increase in the donations for General Purposes, gratifying indeed, when we think of the many demands made during the past year upon our generous friends.

During the year quite extensive renovation and alterations in the Gymnasium seemed necessary for proper service to members, and to provide for the constantly increasing number of applicants in this popular department. For this improvement, the cost of which it had been hoped might be covered by current receipts, the Committee found it necessary to call upon the Trustees for an advance of $10,000 from the Principal Fund.

With this assistance, and with the increased income due to additions to the Permanent Fund supplemented by donations, the general operating receipts have provided revenue substantially meeting expense in spite of the necessary advances in salaries and wages, and the general increase in the cost of operation, felt uniformly by all institutions. A slight deficit will be absorbed by contingent surplus.

Several legacies adding substantially to the Permanent Fund are mentioned in detail in the statement of the Trustees printed elsewhere in this report, and are acknowledged by this Committee with grateful appreciation.

Continual requests from various departments and committees for funds with which to carry on desirable extensions of their activities, or to provide more adequately for forms of work already undertaken, keep constantly before us the never ending opportunity for service. The Committee, therefore, again urges increased generosity in donations from those who already know of The Union's activities, and have for so long supported them. The support is earnestly solicited of new contributors who may find in our program of activities, service which meets with their approval, and in which they may desire to lend a hand.

Main Office

Rooms

Report of Committee on Rooms

William H. Brown, Chairman; W. Rodman Peabody

The demand, constant and increasing, for more space to carry on successfully the many and varied activities of our institution taxes to the uttermost, at times, all the resources at the command of this committee.

The signing of the Armistice and the returning of a large number of the service men to their homes naturally resulted in the coming back to the control of The Union of the large portion of the building given over to War Service. Partitions have been gradually taken down and the rooms on the office floor have taken on a pre-war appearance.

The School for Occupational Therapy was the first to leave, followed on October 1st by the Boston Young Women's Christian Association, which was in charge of the Hostess Room in the Union parlor. The War Camp Community Service on November 1st gave up the United Service Club. The Hostess Room and the United Service Club together with the Dormitories and the Cafeteria are now under the immediate supervision of The Union and are open to all men in uniform as well as to members of The Union.

The Union Hall, the main stairways, the dormitories, the cafeteria, and the Hostess Room were in October repainted and decorated, and general minor repairs made to make good the wear and tear of War Service.

Early in August the transfer of the billiard and pool tables from the Gymnasium Office floor to the Library lobby was accomplished. The space formerly occupied by the billiard and pool tables together with one-half of the bowling alley has been used to provide additional locker, bath and toilet rooms. Rearrangement of the office and social room has provided more direct access to Locker Rooms C and D, and a gymnasium entrance from Boylston Square more convenient than the old Lowell Court entrance. Three hundred large steel lockers have been installed in this new locker room.

Besides these changes the entire floor of Bathroom C was renewed, steam baths rearranged and four additional shower baths were installed. The additional heating and hot water requirements for the new rooms have been met by rearrangement of the boiler system and the introduction of Powers regulating valves, to better control the flow and temperature of the water.

Twenty new chess and checker tables were placed in the Library lobby on account of the activity of the recently organized Boylston Chess Club.

Rooms have been provided for the meetings of various committees, groups and organizations.

The Reception Room has been used weekly by the Mendelssohn Singers and the Orchestral Club, while the Park Street Club has occupied it on the first Saturday night of each month.

Certain of our classrooms not required for our own use during the daylight hours were engaged by the City of Boston School Department.

During the Police Strike and subsequent duty in the City of the State Guard, The Union co-operated with the Y. M. C. A., the War Camp Community Service and other organizations of the City in entertainment and service to the men of the Guard. Stationery, candy, tobacco, papers, etc., were regularly supplied to stations assigned to us, entertainments were given wholly or in part and with the co-operation of the W. C. C. S., then in charge of the United Service Club, several companies of the Guard were provided with quarters in the building. Several dormitories, the Social Room and bowling alleys were occupied regularly by the men, and at night the entire Gymnasium floor was given over for their use. Kitchens were installed in the basement and for a time the building took on the appearance of regular military barracks.

The employed staff of The Union, as might be expected in these days of unrest, has had some changes. Mr. W. H. Wilson, the book-keeper, was succeeded by Mr. Homer B. Miller, and he was later succeeded by Mr. John A. MacDonald. Both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Miller left to accept positions in the business world.

Mr. H. H. Saunderson has been added to the staff as Director of Publicity. Changes have also occurred among the minor clerks, janitors and the part-time workers; otherwise our employees remain the same.

The Committee takes this opportunity to express its appreciation of the voluntary services of Mr. Frederick H. Carpenter, who has given practically all of his time and attention to the supervision of the United Service Club.

Members

Report of Committee on Members

Robert W. Frost, Chairman; Herbert D. Heathfield

The membership of The Union is composed of men of many nationalities, creeds and religions, and they become members of The Union for a variety of reasons, among which are mental and physical training, pleasure, recreation and sociability.

There are many who take a deep interest in the work of The Union and do what they can for its success; but there are others, who might be foremost in zeal and efficiency, who yet fail to understand the greatness and importance of the work which The Union is doing for young men.

The enthusiasm that was exhibited at the Annual Banquet held at the Boston City Club in January, attended by 333 members, was a wonderful exhibition of comradeship and loyalty.

If we can set this enthusiasm in motion to secure a large addition to our present membership, which has increased over 500 since our last report, we will be doing something worth while.

Our slogan is "Every Member a Booster for The Union," and we ask "Are you with us?" "Will you invite other men to join?"

The Union Bulletin, now a weekly publication and mailed to every member of The Union, bringing to them the latest announcements of current news, good cheer and inspiration, has already given promise of results which give us renewed courage in our campaign for new members. In order that every member may co-operate, we are requesting all those who make a change in their location to communicate as soon as possible with the Main Office, giving their correct addresses.

The courtesy of the Rooms, including the United Service Club, which has been since November 1, 1919, under the immediate supervision of The Union, has been extended by our members to the soldiers and sailors now in service, and to a number of ex-service men not yet re-established in civil life. Many ex-service men not already members have joined The Union, thus availing themselves of the privileges of the Service Club as well as the general accommodations of Union membership and assisting in the entertainment of our soldier and sailor guests.

Several new men have been added to the membership of The Union through the organization of the Boylston Chess Club on August 27, 1919. This club now has seventy-six members.

EVENING CLASSES

To-day it is almost impossible to achieve success in life without education and the training of the intellect.

While it is not the function of The Union to duplicate what is being taught in the schools and colleges in our immediate vicinity, it is important to see that young men who come within our reach and influence are provided with the opportunity to supplement their education with practical business knowledge and with such instruction as will assist them more quickly to attain success.

During the year the course of Evening Classes has been regularly attended by 231 young men and women. The classes have held 236 sessions. A membership fee was required of all male students. Young women were admitted to classes where accommodations permitted by paying a registration fee of $1. Both men and women paid a small fee for instruction.

Among the classes given during the season were Arithmetic, Book-keeping and Accountancy, Business English, English Grammar, Advertising and Publicity, Salesmanship, Elocution, Spanish and Photography.

The Advertising Class, consisting of fifteen weekly sessions, was successfully carried on by Mr. L. D. Gibbs, in charge of the Publicity Department at the Edison Electric and Illuminating Company. At the close of this class, a supplementary class was formed under the auspices of the University Extension Courses of the State Department of Education, with Mr. Bellatty, of Boston University, in charge.

The Salesmanship Class, under the immediate direction of Mr. Edward J. Rowse, of the Boston High School of Commerce, again demonstrated the practical value of this course. At the end of the course the members formed a Salesmanship Club and are meeting every week.

The new instructors this year were Charles A. A. Weber in Book-keeping and Accountancy, J. Ellis Ames in English Grammar and Business English and L. D. Gibbs in Advertising.

THE CLUBS

The Camera Club has been very active during the season, with a membership of 85. Its annual Exhibition held in March was by far the best ever held by this Club and elicited much favorable comment from the press and in photographic circles. The Club has held monthly exhibitions of the work of other clubs and individuals from cities outside the State. The usual class in photography was successfully carried on by members of the Club.

The Mendelssohn Singers, with a membership of 40 men, has had a successful season with its regular weekly meetings and a number of special concert engagements. The Club has also assisted in some of the social programs of other departments of THE UNION.

The Orchestral Club has numbered 20 and has held regular weekly rehearsals. Like the Mendelssohn Singers it contributed on several occasions to programs of other departments.

The Park Street Club has continued its popular Saturday evening gatherings for sociability and discussion. The season's program has included popular topics presented by prominent men, and the after-discussions have been interesting as well as lively and amusing. The present membership of the Club is 100.

The Hub Associates, The Essenar Club and The Boylston Chess Club have all been active during the season.

Games in Library Lobby

Library

Report of Richard Ray, Jr., Librarian

Our Library has always been noted for its freedom of access and its spirit of helpfulness. This open-shelf collection, now numbering nearly 15,000 volumes selected from almost every field of literature, is classified and arranged by the Dewey System and is alike available for the student searching for knowledge and for the young man in search of recreation.

With the location of the billiard and pool tables this year in the Library lobby, the magazines and periodicals were transferred to the Silence Room, and this quiet homelike room is now the General Reading Room. Here is located the "Waterston Collection" of five hundred specially selected volumes for reading-room use only.

Gifts of books and periodicals have been received from time to time, and the appreciation and thanks of the Committee is hereby extended to all friends who have thus favored us.

Printed lists of new books have been issued frequently, and published in The Union Bulletin; and in other ways the new acquisitions have been called to the attention of members.

The card catalogue has been kept up to date and books recommended have been given careful and serious consideration.

The following statistics show the general use of the Library during the year, except for the use of books and periodicals in the rooms, of which no statistics are kept.

Main Floor of Gymnasium

Physical Culture

Report of Committee on Physical Culture

George S. Smith, Chairman; Charles Jackson

The year in this department has been an exceptionally busy one and the interest has been constant and enthusiastic. As the year closes, the membership in the Gymnasium is 1,838, a gain over a year ago of 484. This is a large gain and is a reason for deep satisfaction. The enthusiasm and interest of the members has been promoted by the use of music with the class drills. This with the inspiration of trained leadership has made the work very enjoyable.

Forty classes have been held each week at hours to suit the convenience of members. The program of exercise for the different classes is varied to meet the requirements of men of differing occupations and tastes. Heavier work is provided for those particularly desiring to develop strength or interested in the more vigorous forms of gymnasium work. There were lighter exercises in pleasing variety for those of sedentary occupations whose object in coming to the Gymnasium was to keep in good physical condition. For the lighter recreative features, dancing steps and exercises to the tune of some of the popular songs, sometimes accompanied by the hearty singing of the class in unison, has proved most interesting. Handball continues in popularity, the courts being in practically constant use.

The gymnasium classes began the year's work on September 24, 1919, and for a time the applications for gymnasium privileges were so numerous that a waiting list was necessary.

The need of new equipment had been anticipated, and the opening of the season brought with it the new lockers and shower-bath room, the change of entrance from Lowell Court to Boylston Square, a new social room and physical director's office. New carpets and rugs in locker rooms and other changes for the comfort and convenience of our gymnasium patrons.

During the Police Strike in September the Massachusetts State Guard occupied the Gymnasium as temporary quarters; the main floor for cots and sleeping and the bathing facilities were also at their disposal during the entire time of strike.

New Gymnasium Office

Members of the Gymnasium have rendered valuable social service, transmitting to other people something of the help they have received here.

Exhibitions have been given at the West Roxbury Hospital several times; at Everett for the Whidden Memorial Hospital; at Hingham before the American Education Association Convention, and at the Boston City Club.

The Annual Exhibition on June 4 was unusually good and attracted a large attendance. THE UNION Wrestling Championships held in the Gymnasium had a large entry list and a record attendance. During the year there was much interest in wrestling and amateur boxing.

The Civil Service Class for candidates of Police and Fire Department was well attended. Those attending secured high rating. It is a reason for pride that men trained in THE UNION usually attain high rating in Civil Service examinations.

The Massage Department, in charge of Victor Nyquist, has supplied its special service to members desiring this extra attention. In addition to this personal service, Mr. Nyquist has had general oversight of the electric light and steam baths, and similar special equipment. Two new steam baths with slate walls and doors have added materially to the convenience of the members.

The personnel of this department has continued with Oliver L. Hebbert, Instructor, Arthur Fox, First Assistant, and David J. White, Second Assistant, with Mrs. Arthur Fox in charge of piano, and Arthur Schneider in charge of Civil Service Class. Mr. Edward A. Mitchell, clerk in Gymnasium for several years, resigned to take up farming in Connecticut. An interesting event of the year was the marriage of Arthur Fox, First Assistant and Miss Paine, pianist. Their wedding occurred on August 9, 1919. On December 3, 1919, they were presented with a substantial purse of gold by members of the Gym.

Social Service

Report of Committee on Social Service

Edward A. Church, Chairman; *Horace Morison, Robert Winsor, Jr.

Social Service is what The Christian Union mainly stands for. The organization finds its principal reason for existence in its genuine helpfulness to the community, in which it certainly has been successful.

While our Social Service work takes as wide a scope as is practicable in its operations, it has specialized in three departments. The Country Week seems to lead in importance. It gives summer vacations to many children in our city who could not otherwise obtain them and has been of inestimable service in the promotion of health, happiness and home training among its beneficiaries. During the season of 1919 its advantages were enjoyed by sixteen hundred and forty-one persons, and that number will be increased the coming summer as far as our means will allow. A special report of this work, handsomely illustrated, will be forwarded on application.

Rides for Invalids stands next on our list, and the title indicates the service. This is the only philanthropy in this line in Boston, so far as known, and has proved of the greatest value to thousands, in transportation to and from the hospitals and in real "joy-rides" to the sick and feeble. Here is the record for the past year:

Persons given carriage drives	600
Steamboat tickets distributed	444
Electric-car tickets distributed	9,000

The Christmas Festival held its forty-seventh celebration on the afternoon of December 27, 1919, giving joy to seven hundred and forty children (and incidentally to their parents) besides furnishing employment to the large and efficient committee which so ably handled this delightful enterprise. The chief entertainment was a play called "Jenny Wren's Christmas Party," given by some of the children themselves under the excellent direction of Mrs. William Hodges. There was enthusiastic singing by the little folks, conducted by Mr. John L. Dyer, who again favored us with his breezy impersonation of the immortal "Santa Claus," and there was a liberal circulation of cake and ice-cream.

* Resigned

Every child, on leaving the hall, received a boxful of substantial gifts, mainly clothing, all carefully selected for the individual needs.

Our good President, Mr. Locke, took an active part in making the little guests welcome and was cordially assisted by Mayor Peters, who shared heartily in the festivities.

The Employment Department has continued under the efficient management of Mr. Herbert C. Bronsdon.

Our Boarding and Lodging Lists are carefully supervised and much consulted; the sick and needy are looked after; church attendance is encouraged; and general as well as specialized efforts are being made to fulfil our obligations.

Miss Theodora A. Luard has continued in charge of our benevolent work, to the great satisfaction of both the management and the beneficiaries; Miss Eva Scarborough's efficient service also continues; Miss Gertrude Sharman and Miss Gertrude Elliott have rendered valuable assistance; and loyal and industrious committees have faithfully co-operated with generous donors to make our Social Service effective.

Employment Department, 1919–20

In reporting upon the work of the Employment Department for the past year your Committee finds little of a special nature to which attention can be called. As compared with the previous year there was a marked falling off both in the number of applicants for work (922 against 1,360) and in positions to be filled (374 against 547). This decrease was no doubt due to the operations of the various agencies, both of the City and of the Federal Government, which were dealing with the problems raised by the demobilization of the army and navy forces.

The efforts to help boys to fit themselves for office positions through part-time employment in The Union office have been continued, new features adopted during the year being instruction in the operation of telephone switchboards and the multigraph.

The usual opportunities for advice in regard to choice of a vocation or fitness for special work have been continued, and the assistance of the members of the Advisory Committee and the officers and members of THE UNION who have co-operated in this direction has been greatly and sincerely appreciated.

There has been a greater demand upon the Department for boys for office and errand work. Special efforts have been made to reach boys through the assistance of Boy Scout officials, principals and teachers in schools, yet even with their help we were able to fill but twenty available positions.

There were 415 applicants for clerical positions, including part-time and summer work, and ranging in character from minor positions to those calling for high executive ability. There were 86 requests for help of this kind, and of these 15 were filled.

Members of THE UNION interested to make a change in employment or who happen to know of openings for young men or of young men available for positions could greatly assist in this service by communicating with the Department. Mr. Bronsdon, the Superintendent, would be glad to have any member interested volunteer to help in placing men. Who will be the first to send in his name?

Civic Affairs

Report of Committee on Civic Affairs

W. Rodman Peabody, Chairman; Herbert D. Heathfield

The report of this committee covers four divisions:

1. The varied activities of the Civic Department, reported by Mr. E. B. Mero, Civic Secretary.
2. The United Service Club, reported by Mr. F. H. Carpenter, Superintendent of the Club.
3. The Hostess Room, reported by Miss Theodora A. Luard, Manager.
4. The Cafeteria, reported by Mrs. A. B. Beach, Manager.

The Civic Department

(Reported by E. B. Mero, Civic Secretary)

The principal activity of the Civic Department during the past year has been the arrangement and direction of Service Unit programs. The number of programs has been 260 with a total aggregate attendance of 495,000 people. Such programs consist of the combination typical of all Service Unit programs, namely, motion pictures and picture slides; mass-singing by the audience, with a song leader, of songs in harmony with the program; "silent talks" on the screen, conveying constructive comments and information relating to national problems of the day by means of slides; with suggestive patriotic features always in evidence.

Some of these programs have been given indoors, some outdoors. For the most part they have been given in co-operation with various national, state, municipal and civic organizations. In addition to indoor programs in Boston and Cambridge, a tour of New England was made for the American Red Cross last autumn.

The most concrete constructive piece of work has been the development of a series of three "Building a Nation" programs. They teach citizenship not only to foreigners but to native-born Americans. Among other places they have been given in Boston School Centers. The first program dealt with the founding of America, the second with American national development, and the third with the problems and glories of American democracy.

Beginning with the celebration of the birthdays of Washington and Lincoln last February a series of Sunday afternoon programs have been given in the United Service Club at THE UNION for army and navy men, ex-service men, and members of THE UNION. This series is to be continued until the end of May.

Around the Fireplace. United Service Club

In co-operation with army authorities of the Northeastern Department several programs have been given for soldier audiences at the Boston Harbor forts. Co-operation has also been given to the Recruiting Service of the United States Army and Navy and to the thrift campaign of the United States Treasury Department. Just as THE UNION rendered exceptional service at the time of the Boston police strike, the Civic Department provided Service Unit programs for members of the State Guard at the various armories and other stations.

During last June, July and August a community concert was given each Sunday evening on Boston Common with audiences averaging 5,000 people. Community singing is a prominent part of all Service Unit programs.

This Department is continuing, in time of peace, the methods that proved successful in time of war and is rendering valuable service in this reconstruction period. During the past two years one thousand programs have been arranged for audiences that have aggregated two and one-half million people.

UNITED SERVICE CLUB

(Reported by F. H. Carpenter, Superintendent of the Club)

1. DORMITORIES

The United Service Club also continues in time of peace the methods which were successful during the war and has rendered to young men engaged in normal American life the same kind of service that was given to soldiers and sailors. The Club of course continues to administer to ex-service men.

On November 1, 1919, THE UNION took over the management of the United Service Club and a daily average of forty-two men have been lodged in the dormitories. Thirty additional men daily have used the Club's reading and writing rooms, baths and lavatories.

THE UNION helped sixty-four ex-service men who were without funds by giving them food and lodging and placing them in communication with the Federal Vocational Board.

Recently lockers have been installed in the smaller dormitories.

These dormitories are used by an increasing number of young men. The occupants of each dormitory are organized as a club for its care and discipline, subject to the approval of the management.

CO-OPERATION WITH OTHER SOCIETIES

During the past year the United Service Club furnished accommodations to 764 service and ex-service men, up to November 1, 1919. After the taking over of the Club by the B. Y. M. C. Union, this service has been continued, although considerably reduced by reason of discharges from service. One hundred and twelve men have been cared for at the request of the Red Cross, the Boston Committee for returned men, and various other associations for welfare work, since November 1, 1919.

EMPLOYMENT

One hundred and fourteen jobs were procured for ex-service men, and in thirty-seven cases the necessary funds for transportation were furnished by a friend of the Club. Fifty-two men were given food and lodging at the Club, until they were able to repay, from money earned on work.

Much of the janitor work about the Club is done by men, in return for meals and room, while waiting for jobs at their trade.

ACTIVITIES

The Hostess Room, part of the Social Service work of the Boston Young Men's Christian Union, under the supervision of Miss Theodora A. Luard, has for its permanent Hostess, Miss Gertrude Sharman, whose work this last year merits the highest praise.

The Hostess Room has entertained on the average of forty-five young men daily since October 1st. Our general weekly program has been as follows:

Monday afternoon, the always cheery cup of tea with Mrs. Spring.

Monday evenings, an informal dance held in the Union Hall under the supervision of Mrs. George B. Nauss.

Twice a month, a special dance at which we had special music, served refreshments and favors.

Tuesdays have been a real joy to all under Miss Bartlett's direction, with cards, dancing, music, and the personal interest Miss Bartlett takes in all of our guests.

Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Hammond, a bright and cheery chat with all.

Wednesday evening, a delightful evening of music and dancing with Mrs. Phillips and Miss Lewis.

Thursday afternoon, always interesting discussions in English, Italian, French and literature with Mrs. Clark.

Mrs. Lothrop's Thursday evenings have proven very merry ones with games, puzzles, dancing and refreshments.

Friday, special dancing instruction with Miss Mayer, Mrs. Brown assisting at the piano.

Saturdays with Miss Cotharin always give the boys just the touch of home that means so much when away from own folks.

Sunday afternoons with Miss Dow and Miss Glenna Dow is always very helpful and an inspiration to the boys for the coming week.

We have endeavored to make the work of the Hostess Room very personal, finding positions for those who need them, advising and directing young men.

THE CAFETERIA

The Cafeteria, under the immediate direction of Mrs. A. B. Beach, has been very popular, having served 56,000 meals since November 1, 1919. The prevailing high market prices of food has made it difficult to keep prices down while serving, as we do, first class food.

There has been no thought of financial gain in this enterprise. The aim is to give the very best food and good service at the lowest possible prices. This object has been attained, and prices have been advanced only when necessary to cover actual cost. Our patrons are getting large value for their money.

It is our hope that the young men who come here will regard the Cafeteria not only as a good place to eat, but that they will have the feeling, when they come in, that they are at home and among friends, and that we are always glad to see them.

A Gymnasium Class in the Open Air

Publicity

Effective publicity is very essential in the work which The Union is doing. During the past year steps have been taken for its development. Mr. H. H. Saunderson has been added to the staff as Director of Publicity. All pamphlets, printed programs, leaflets, etc., pass through his hands. He has had wide experience in publicity work, including work with newspapers.

One of the most notable forward steps in the publicity work is in the new plans, now in actual operation, for the Union Bulletin. Formerly the Union Bulletin was published irregularly and only about ten times a year. No thorough means were used for its distribution.

Mr. Saunderson is now the editor. The Union Bulletin is a regular weekly publication, being issued every Wednesday from September 15 to June 15. This plan of weekly publication was begun in March, 1920, will be continued until June and is to be renewed in September.

Stencils have been made of the entire membership list of The Union and the Union Bulletin is mailed regularly to every man. This gives an efficient distribution in addition to regularity of publication. The Union Bulletin now serves as a means of communication with our growing membership, serves as the organ of our educational work, carries announcements and news of all that is going on in our building, expresses idealism and conveys inspiration. Thus it fills a great need. It is developing a new spirit which animates our whole body.

A large advantage has been gained by securing entry as second class mail matter at the Boston Post Office. Application was made to the Post Office Department in Washington in March, when the Union Bulletin was made a weekly publication. After the most thorough consideration of the merits of the Bulletin, the application was granted. This gives us a very low rate for postage. The definite announcement has been made that the Union Bulletin will be published weekly except during the summer (from June 15 to September 15).

CONSTITUTION

BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION

ARTICLE I. TITLE.

THIS Society shall be called the "BOSTON YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN UNION."

ARTICLE II. ELIGIBILITY OF MEMBERS.

All young men of good moral character, and claiming to believe in the truths of Christianity, without distinction of sect or party, shall be eligible as members of this Society; but no person shall vote at any meeting of the Society who has not been a member for the period of one year, at least, previous to such meeting.

ARTICLE III. ADMISSION OF MEMBERS.

Members may be admitted in such manner and on such conditions as the Board of Government may prescribe.

ARTICLE IV. CLASSIFICATION OF MEMBERS.

All persons qualified as before named, who shall be admitted in the manner herein provided, shall, upon the payment of one dollar annually, become and continue MEMBERS of this Society; upon the payment of five dollars annually, shall become and continue SUBSCRIPTION MEMBERS; upon the payment of ten dollars annually, shall become and continue SUSTAINING MEMBERS; and all subscription members who shall pay the sum of twenty-five dollars in five or less annual installments shall become LIFE MEMBERS of the Society.

ARTICLE V. OFFICERS.

The officers of the Society shall consist of a Board of twelve Directors, who shall be elected by ballot from members of the Society, and shall constitute the Board of Government. Four directors shall be elected each year, each to serve three years.

On or before February 15 of each year the President shall appoint a committee of three to make nominations for vacancies to be filled at the regular annual meeting. The committee shall report its nominations to the Secretary on or before March 1. Other nominations may be made by filing nomination papers, placed in the hands of the Secretary on or before April 1, signed by not less than 150 members entitled to vote at the previous annual meeting.

The Secretary shall post in a conspicuous place in the Union Rooms, immediately upon receipt by him, the list of names of the candidates presented by the nominating committee, and the names of other candidates properly presented, and shall provide suitable ballots containing the names of all candidates. Only those placed in nomination herein as provided shall be eligible for election.

Immediately after the annual meeting in each year the Board of Directors shall meet and organize, and shall choose from their number a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society, for the ensuing year. All the above officers so elected shall serve for the terms respectively named and until their respective successors are elected.

Vacancies occurring from any cause in the Board of Directors shall be filled by the Board of Government, and any director so elected shall hold office until the next annual meeting and the election of his successor.

Vacancies occurring in the offices of President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled for the remainder of their terms by the Board of Directors.

The Board of Government shall have power to appoint, subject to their direction, such other officers and committees from among the members as they may deem expedient.

ARTICLE VI. Duties of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors,—

First, To provide for the use of the Society suitable rooms, centrally located in the city of Boston.

Second, To provide and keep in said rooms such books, periodicals, and newspapers as will, in their judgment, promote the object of the Society.

Third, To make such arrangements for social religious exercises as they shall deem practicable and conducive to the best interests of the Society.

Fourth, To induce the members of the Society to connect themselves with some of the religious societies in the vicinity, according always to their denominational preferences, and especially to seek out and impart information, and render aid, assistance, and encouragement to those who come as strangers to the city, striving to guard them against temptation, to surround them with Christian influences, and to interest them in the cultivation of a religious life.

ARTICLE VII. Meetings.

The annual meeting of the Society for the choice of officers shall be held on the second Wednesday in April. The Board of Directors may call other meetings of the Society from time to time; and they shall call such meetings whenever requested so to do by the written application of any seventeen members, stating the purposes for which such meeting is to be held; said meetings to be called in such manner as the said Board may deem expedient, having previously given reasonable notice thereof. Seventeen members shall constitute a quorum of the Society for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE VIII. Permanent Fund.

The Board of Directors may transfer such of the funds of the Society as they may think best to a Permanent Fund, may appoint five trustees to control such fund, and shall at the time of such appointment determine the character of the trust by an instrument in writing. Vacancies occurring at any time hereafter in the number of said trustees shall be filled by the remaining members, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors for the time being.

ARTICLE IX. Amendments.

These articles may be added to, altered, or amended at any regular meeting, or special meeting called for the purpose, by a vote of three-fourths of the members present, provided that such additions, alterations, or amendments shall have been proposed in writing at one meeting, at least, prior to that at which they are to be acted upon.

BY-LAWS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNMENT

Boston Young Men's Christian Union

ARTICLE I. Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Board of Government shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by vote of the Board. Special meetings may be called at any time by order of the President, Secretary, or any two Directors. Five members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE II. Officers.

The President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Society shall be respectively President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer of the Board of Government.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board and shall have such further duties as may from time to time be delegated to him by the Board. In case of the absence or disability of the President, his duties shall be discharged by the Vice-President.

The Secretary shall issue notices of all meetings of the Board, and keep a record of such meetings.

The Treasurer shall keep the accounts of the Society, shall collect its funds and disburse them under the direction of the Board. He shall present to the Board a Monthly Report showing the condition of the finances, and shall prepare for presentation at the annual meeting of the Society a complete report of the financial operations of the year. No money shall be paid by him except by the authority of the Board or approval in writing of some member of the committee under whose direction the expenditures were made.

ARTICLE III. Standing Committees.

At the first meeting of the Board in each year, there shall be appointed by the President seven standing committees, which shall be under the authority and subject to the direction of the whole Board. The President shall be ex officio a member of all the standing committees. Each committee may appoint such sub-committees as it shall deem fit, provided, however, that each sub-committee shall be subject in its action to the committee of the Board to which it is subordinate. The seven committees shall be as follows:

1. Committee on Finance—which shall have charge of the financial affairs of the Society, and, with the treasurer, shall devise ways and means for procuring funds. It shall provide a proper audit of all books and accounts.

2. Committee on Rooms—which shall have the general charge of the Union Building and rooms.

3. Committee on Members—which shall have general supervision of the admission of new members, and shall organize means for increasing the membership of the Society. It shall have supervision of all clubs formed for sociability, and shall have charge of all entertainments.

4. Committee on Education—which shall organize and have supervision of all clubs, classes, lectures, and meetings for instruction or discussion, secular or religious, both public and private. It shall have general charge of the Library and its equipment.

5. Committee on Physical Culture—which shall have the general charge of the gymnasium, of athletic sports and games, and other measures for promoting the health of the members.

6. Committee on Social Service—which shall organize means for providing members and others with employment, with boarding-houses, with seats in churches, and shall have the general supervision of all works of benevolence undertaken by the Society.

7. Committee on Civic Affairs—which shall endeavor to develop the interest of the members in civic affairs, shall give special attention to co-operation with other agencies in community service, and shall have general charge of all groups and clubs of a public or civic character.

ARTICLE IV. Annual Report.

The Board shall present at the annual meeting of the Society a detailed statement of the condition of the institution and of its operation during the preceding year.

ARTICLE V. Report of Committees.

It shall be the duty of each committee to keep a detailed account of its proceedings, and at the end of the year to place the same, with the reports of its sub-committees, in the hands of the Secretary of the Society.

ARTICLE VI. Amendments to By-Laws.

The foregoing By-Laws may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Board, provided that two-thirds of the members present assent thereto; but no alteration, addition, or amendment shall be adopted at the same meeting at which it is proposed.

An Open Door

Many young men begin their business career with inadequate education. They are unprepared for promotion, and fail to attain complete success.

THE UNION offers a variety of educational opportunities. There are classes in many subjects connected with commercial life.

The open door to success is found by hundreds of young men who gain the needed education here. They win promotion or prepare adequately for another line of work.

Discontent with your present position and prospects should lead to the very earnest determination to be well prepared for something better.

Your spare time will help you toward that better job if you will spend your evenings here in thorough study and preparation.

Make the most of yourself. Come in at this open door. Use the opportunities you will find here. Win success.

Decide now that you will use the classes offered for the coming year by The Union.
